The second Annual Arcadia Valley Mountain Music Festival was held May 16-18, 2008. Activities centered around the historic Iron County Courthouse square on Main Street in Ironton. There was THREE STAGES with old time music, music, music everywhere.

Many different musical groups performed. A stage was set up specifically for pickers, and everyone was invited to bring their own instrument to join the fun. There was a Hay Bailing Exhibition, a Two-Man Saw competition, Quilting, Spinning, Vintage Photos, Log Hewing, Storytelling, Buggy Rides and a Miniature Train Ride for Kids, in addition to lots of food booths. FAMOUS MISSOURIANS were stationed around the Courthouse telling his or her story. Mark Twain, Cyrus Russell, Harry Truman and Betty Grable . . . were the famous storytellers.
