Narrative Summary of the Project:

Graham Street Fair Board takes the leadership role with participation from nearly every group, organization and business in Graham including the Graham Community Betterment, Bethany Christian Church, City of Graham, Graham 4-H, Graham Union Church, Graham United Methodist Church, Hobby Club, Graham Lions, Progressive Club, Nodaho Bow Hunters, Nodaway-Holt Music Department, FFA, FCCLA, and FHA.

The Graham Street Fair has enjoyed a resurgence of popularity since 1989 when a Sesquicentennial was held, and 10,000 people crowded the streets of Graham on Saturday afternoon when most of the activities were held. Community Betterment actively partners with the Fair Board in this endeavor by providing facilities and volunteer labor. Visitors throughout Northwest Missouri as well as other states make it a point to come to Graham and participate in the festivities bring a needed resurgence of economic activity to town.
